*The 1991 limited
mintage American Eagle proof coins
may be making only a brief appearance.*

Last year, the U.S. Mint's entire mintage of these exquisite gold and silver coins sold out rapidly. The Four-Coin Proof Gold Set and the half-ounce gold disappeared in just two weeks, the others shortly thereafter. The same is almost certain to happen this year.

*The sooner you order,
the greater your chance
of adding these coins
to your collection.*

Seasoned collector or beginner, you'll find the 1991 American Eagle proof coins exceptional collectibles. Fine workmanship like this is rarely found these days. Hand-finished dies. Blanks burnished to remove even minute flaws. Coins struck at least twice for impeccable clarity. And double checked for perfection. These are just some of the reasons why no collection is complete without American Eagle proof coins, including yours — so act quickly!

Only a limited number can own them...

Because only a limited number of the 1991 coins will be minted. Once gone, they'll never be minted again with the 1991 date.

*From the One Ounce
Silver to the Four-Coin Proof Gold Set, these coins possess the qualities collectors treasure.*

In beauty and craftsmanship, American Eagles are beyond measure. But in price, they're within easy reach — and the Four-Coin Proof Gold Set is still at last year's price of just $999. Send in the enclosed order form quickly! This golden opportunity will disappear soon.

In the event of a sellout...

Because of last year's quick sellout and limited mintage, the Mint fully expects another sellout this year. In the event a particular coin option is sold out, the Mint reserves the right to either process partial orders and make refunds, or return orders in their entirety.

The Mint also reserves the right to limit quantities and may stop accepting orders at any time. (For more details on terms and conditions, please refer to the enclosed order form.)

But why take the risk? Act quickly. This golden opportunity will disappear soon.

Office of the Director
United States Mint

Dear United States Mint Customer:

Last year, American Eagle proof coins lasted only a brief, golden moment. Then — as fleeting as a bright and beautiful rainbow — they vanished!

As I prepare to depart the Mint after completing two five-year terms as Director, I'd like you to know that the American Eagle has been for me the most meaningful of all the lovely Mint products with which I've been associated. I hope to be remembered for having introduced the Eagles — both the American Eagle Bullion Coins and this exquisite proof Eagle — to the worldwide marketplace.

Last year's American Eagle proof coins sold out so quickly they seemed like a rainbow — gone before some of you could catch them.

Don't miss them this year. It's essential that you order quickly this time and it's my pleasure to tell you that this year's price for the popular Four-Coin Proof Gold Set is the same as last year's — $999.

As you treasure your Eagles, I have treasured my time here at the Mint. I sincerely thank you for your support over the years.
